MRS. PHILLIP LEA HARRISON
the former Miss Maurine Vaden McCormick

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Maurine Vaden McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bolden McCormick of Spout Spring, Va. to Phillip Lea Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Harrison of Appomattox, Va. was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock p.m. in Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Rev. Dennis Moore, pastor of Hebron Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, cousin of the bride, of Spout Spring, organist and Mrs. Thomas H. Harrison, sister-in-law of the groom, soloist, of Dallas, Texas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza, cut on princess lines and finished with a scalloped neck and elbow length sleeves. The full skirt, ending in a chapel train featured motifs of Peau de Ange lace, etched with seed pearls appliqued on bodice and skirt. Her elbow length veil was attached to a crown of lace edged with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis, daisy pompoms and centered with Shasta Daisies.

Mrs. John O. Harrison, sister-in-law of the groom of Louisa was matron of honor. She wore a dress of yellow flocked gingham, with empire lines, square neckline and puffed sleeves finished in white hamberg lace. The semi-full skirt was outlined at the high rise waist with a band of white ribbon with a bow in the back ending with streamers to the floor. She carried a double bouquet of long stemmed Shasta Daisies.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Dale Cyrus of Spout Spring, Va., Miss Edith Kaufman, Waynesboro, Va., Miss Mary Nell Doss of Appomattox, Va. and Miss Rita Gay Ferguson, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox, Va. Their dresses were same as the matron of honor, except they were trimmed with apple green ribbon and carried a single long stemmed Shasta Daisy and showered with apple green ribbons.

Little Miss Lisa Harrison of Louisa, neice of the bridegroom was flower girl, wearing a dress similiar to the bridesmaids with green ribbon.

John O. Harrison of Louisa was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Mr. Crawford Roach, cousin of groom, of Bedford, Va., Mr. Thomas Harrison, brother of groom of Dallas, Texas, Mr. Wayne Phelps, friend of Concord, Va. and Mr. Jesse Judy, cousin of groom of Fincastle, Va.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall for all guests, by her parents.

Misses Sandra and Gloria Ferguson ,cousins of the bride, distributed pale yellow rice bags to the guests during the reception.

Misses Rose Evans and Miss Ellen Doss of Appomattox, Va. were guest book attendants.

The mother of the bride wore yellow, the groom's mother wore green and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. P. C. Newman, Sr. of Evington, was in light blue. All three wore double Shasta Daisy corsages.

For traveling the bride changed to a red and navy dress with empire waist and cape sleeves. She added a yellow throated orchid.

After the wedding trip the couple will live in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Keep home earned dollars home owned dollars

When you spend money out of town it is gone. It keeps traveling with little chance of returning.

Money spent at home stays at home. It returns in many ways. In more successful businesses, improvements, expansions and new construction.

Dollars increase in value and provide more taxes that improve parks, playgrounds, streets and schools.

If all purchases that could be made at home were made at home think of all the improvements that would be possible.
